FOREWORD

In composing the 1960 PINE KNOT, the yearbook staff has tried to present a pictorial history of the past year at Farmerville High School. We hope that in future years you will find this annual a constant source of pleasure.

The staff is deeply indebted to the faculty of the school and to the many business concerns of Farmerville without whose support it would have been impossible to produce this yearbook.

Each day approximately 837 commuting and 103 local boys and girls receive six hours of instruction in the above two school buildings. The high school building, in which grades 7 - 12 are housed, is pictured to the left, while to the right is a very unusual shot of the elementary building. The appearance of the buildings pictured on this page has been greatly enhanced by the landscaping project executed under the combined sponsorship of the Farmerville P.T.A. and the local school board.

Buildings

The Home Economics cottage is one of the most modern and well-equipped of its type. The students who receive instruction here are most appreciative of the arcade that was built during this last year's building program.

Farmerville school's cafeteria serves approximately 840 students at an average cost of $53.60 daily. Each student receives a balanced meal for the small amount of 10¢ which is supplemented by the 17¢ per pupil allowance from the state.

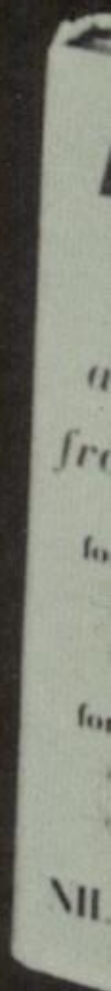

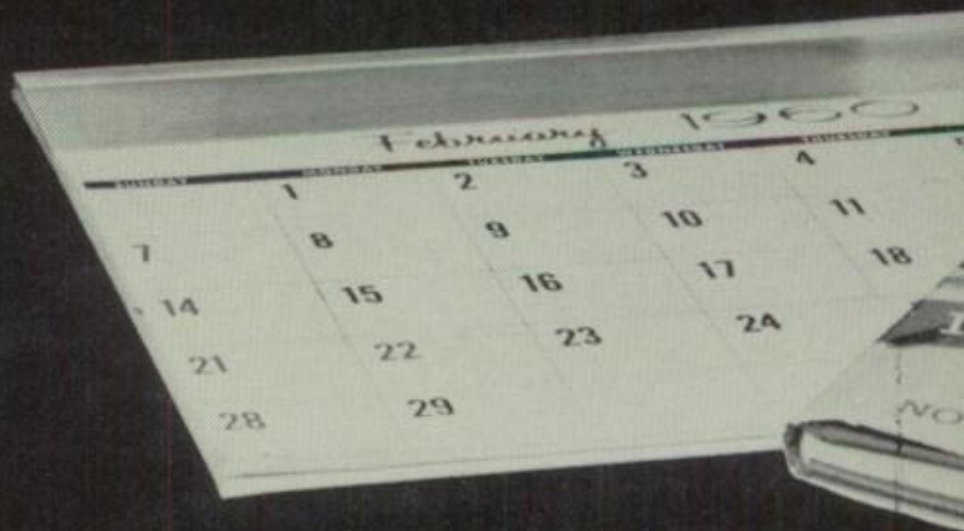

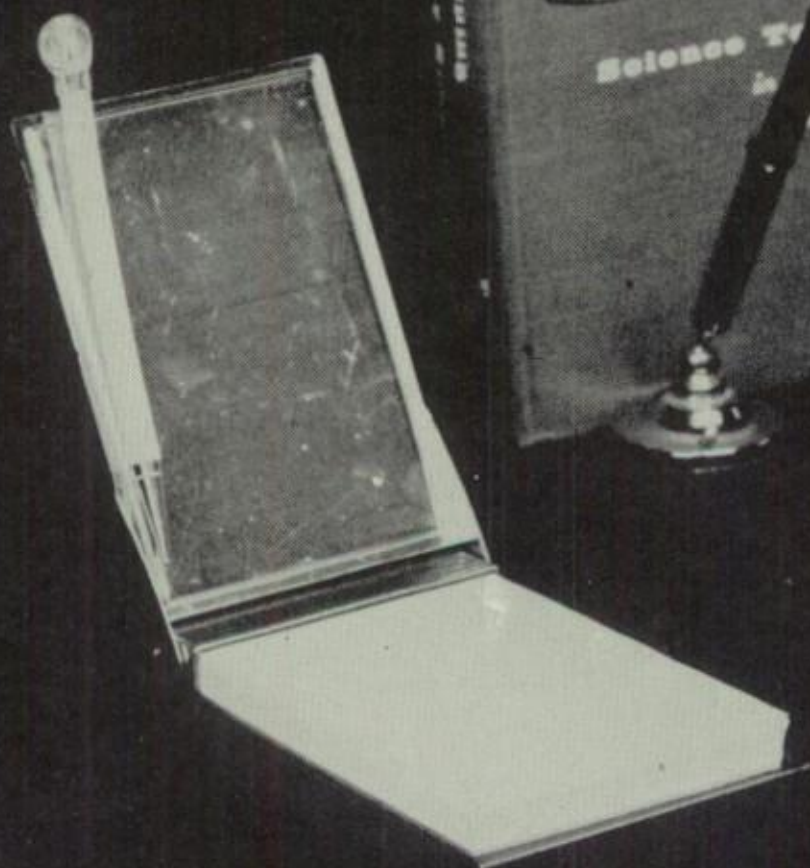

Since the agricultural program has been discontinued in Farmerville school, the shop section of the building is now used by parish maintenance men while the classroom is used as a book storage room by the elementary school. (Picture on left) The old Farmerville elementary building pictured on the right is presently being used for individual piano lessons, for the special education class, and for storage space. It was completed in the year 1925 and was used as the high school building for many years.

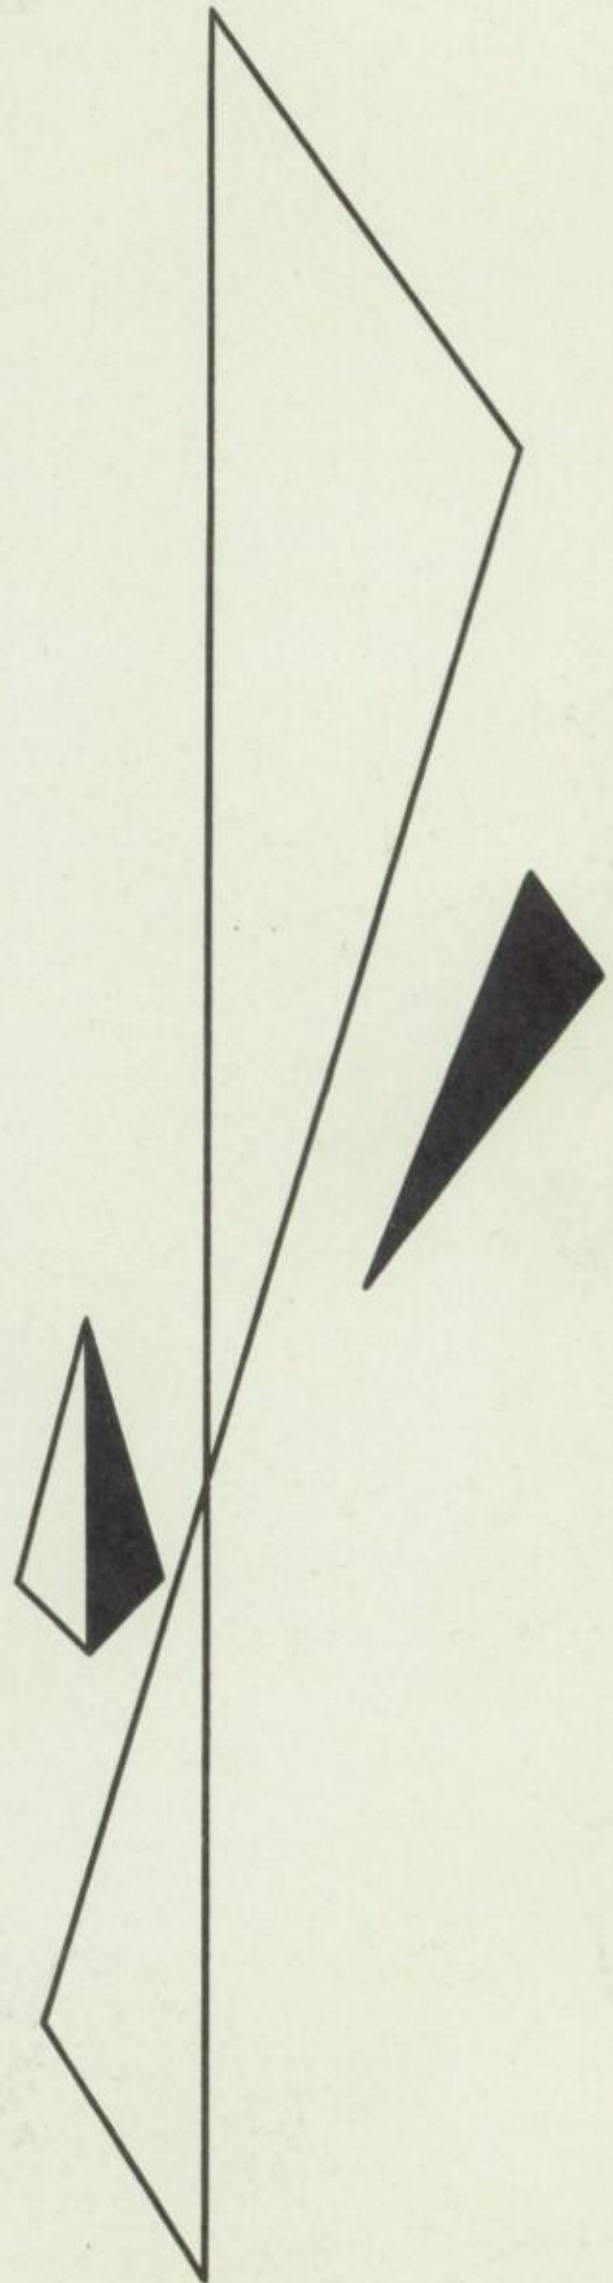

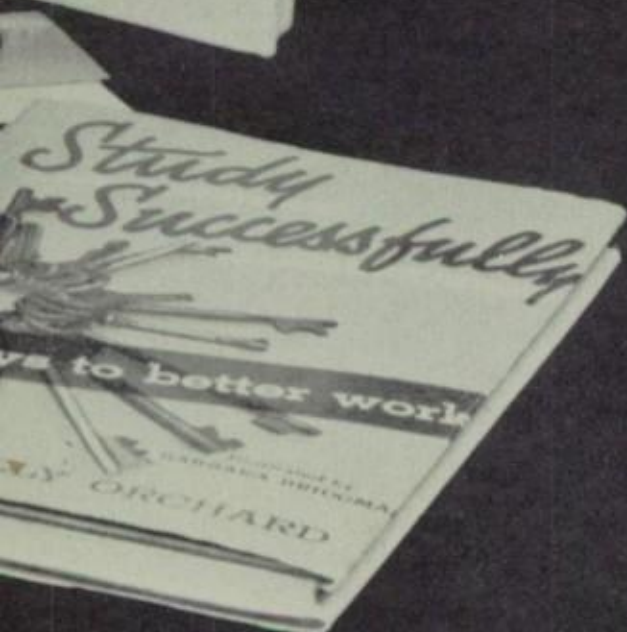

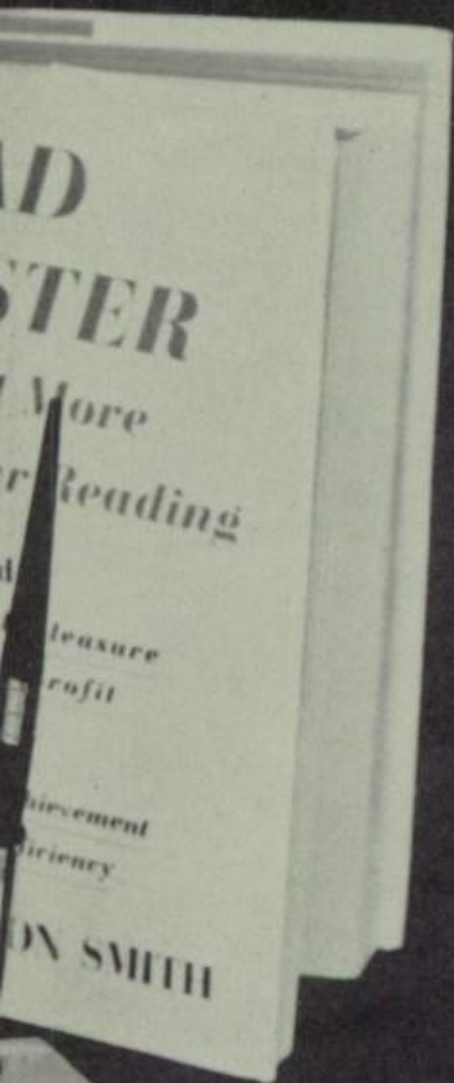

Buildings

The gymnasium, one of the largest in the area, will accommodate 3,000 people comfortably. It was recently modernized with the addition of the latest athletic equipment, and a new resurfaced basketball floor. (Picture at left) The scoreboard and clock, which was installed in 1957 under the sponsorship of the Farmerville Lions Club, has made the viewing of home football games much more interesting for the spectators.

The students of the class of 1960 are to be congratulated upon the outstanding yearbook they have produced. It is the result of extensive planning, long and hard work by the students, coupled with able leadership of their sponsors - Mrs. Lillian Miller and Mrs. Marjorie Wade.

This book will serve as a mirror for all students into which they may look and review the activities of the school year 1959-60 at Farmerville High School. For the senior class, I hope this year will be the most memorable one of their high school career.

May I take this opportunity to wish for all students the best of everything - especially the seniors as they will soon face some of the realities of life.

Sincerely yours,

W. D. CLINTON

The staff and sponsors of the yearbook are to be commended for their excellent work. I am sure that I speak for the faculty and student body of the Farmerville Elementary School when I say that this PINE KNOT is one to be appreciated.

It is evident that many hours of planning, time, and work have been required to make the publication possible. The yearbook is an example of the type of work that you can do.

May the experience that you have had serve to remind you that worthwhile things do not come easy, but are a result of choice, study, and hard work.

Sincerely,

HORACE NOLAN

COMMERCE

Learning the fundamentals of typewriting is Mrs. Gladys K. Rabun's 3rd period typing class. One of the main attractions of this class is no homework, but no shirking of lessons during class is allowed. This is a very important course to have and Farmerville High is indeed fortunate in having such an outstanding commerce department.

HOME ECONOMICS

Mrs. Stewart's homeliving class poses for the photographer in the living room of the Home Economics Cottage. This is a new subject being offered by Farmerville High, and the students seem to be enjoying it very much. Instead of math and science, this course stresses social welfare and daily problems faced in our society today.

Representing the math department is Mrs. Floy Kemp's trigonometry class. About 20 students are taking the course this year which is a 50% increase in pupils taking the subject two years ago. Many of the students in this class will be studying math and science courses at college, so the experience gained in this difficult subject will be very helpful indeed.

SCIENCE

Mrs. Barron's 11th grade chemistry class is performing experiments. These students gain valuable knowledge in Farmerville High's excellent laboratory.

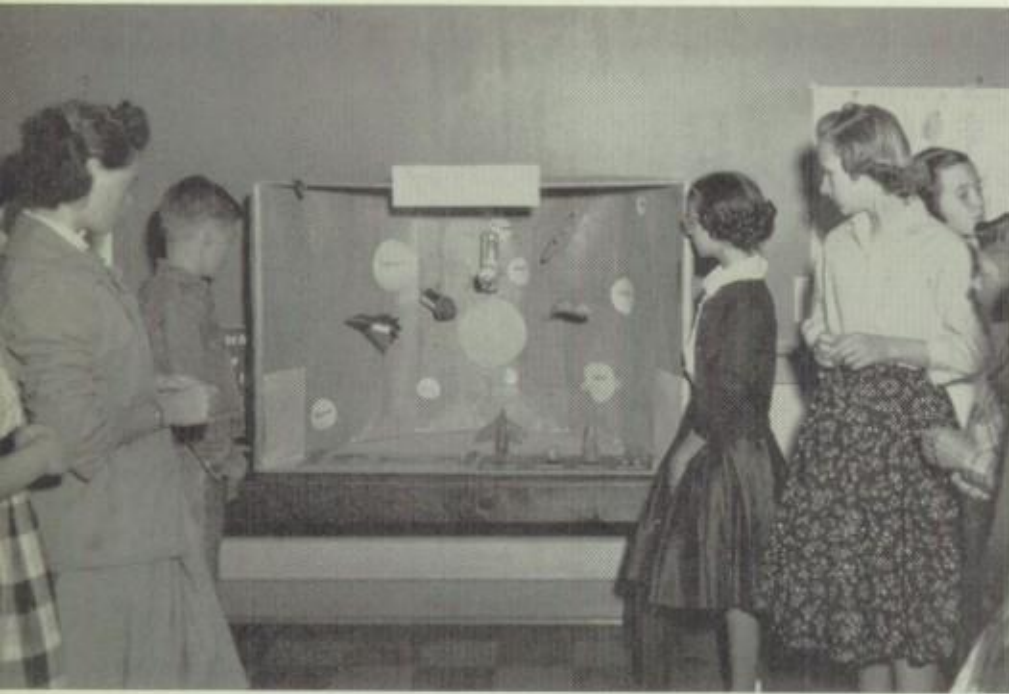

Activities

Science Fair

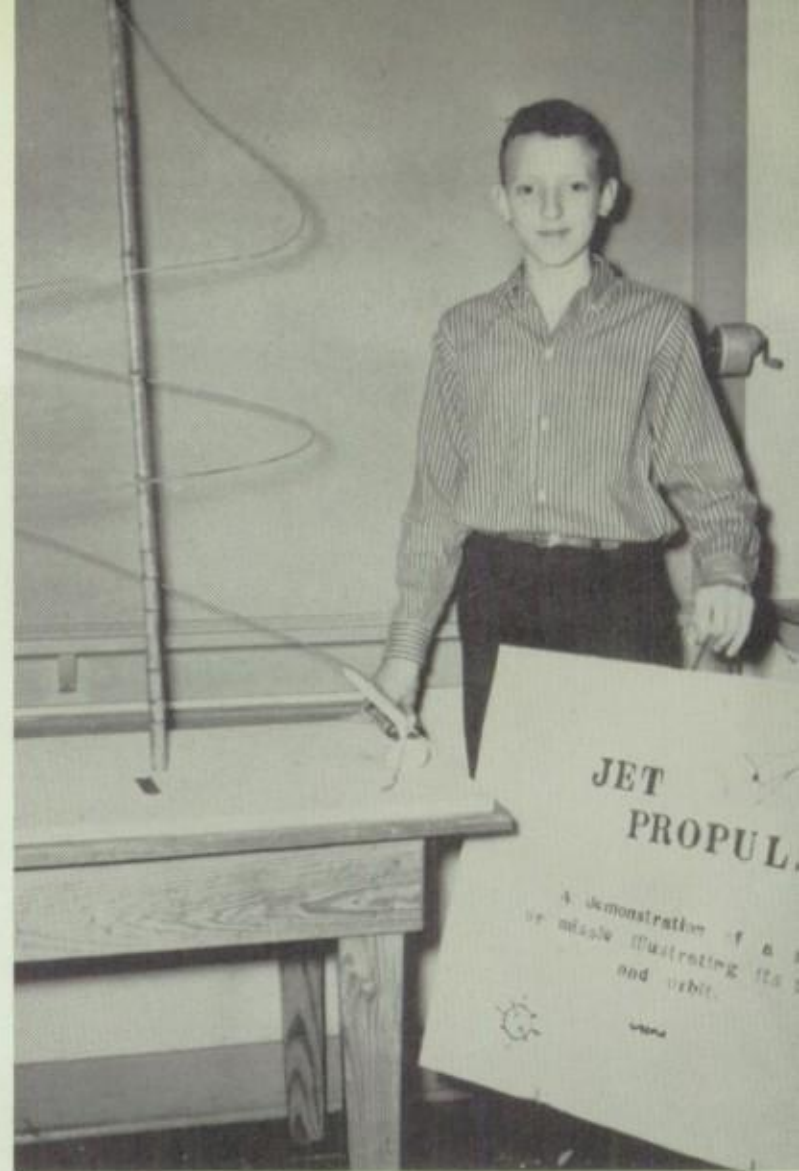

A group of seventh grade students view a project entitled "Space Travel," a blue-ribbon entry submitted by Mrs. Greer's second grade class.

Joy Hodge is shown with her blue-ribbon winner, a project on embedding in plastic, which was very interesting and well done.

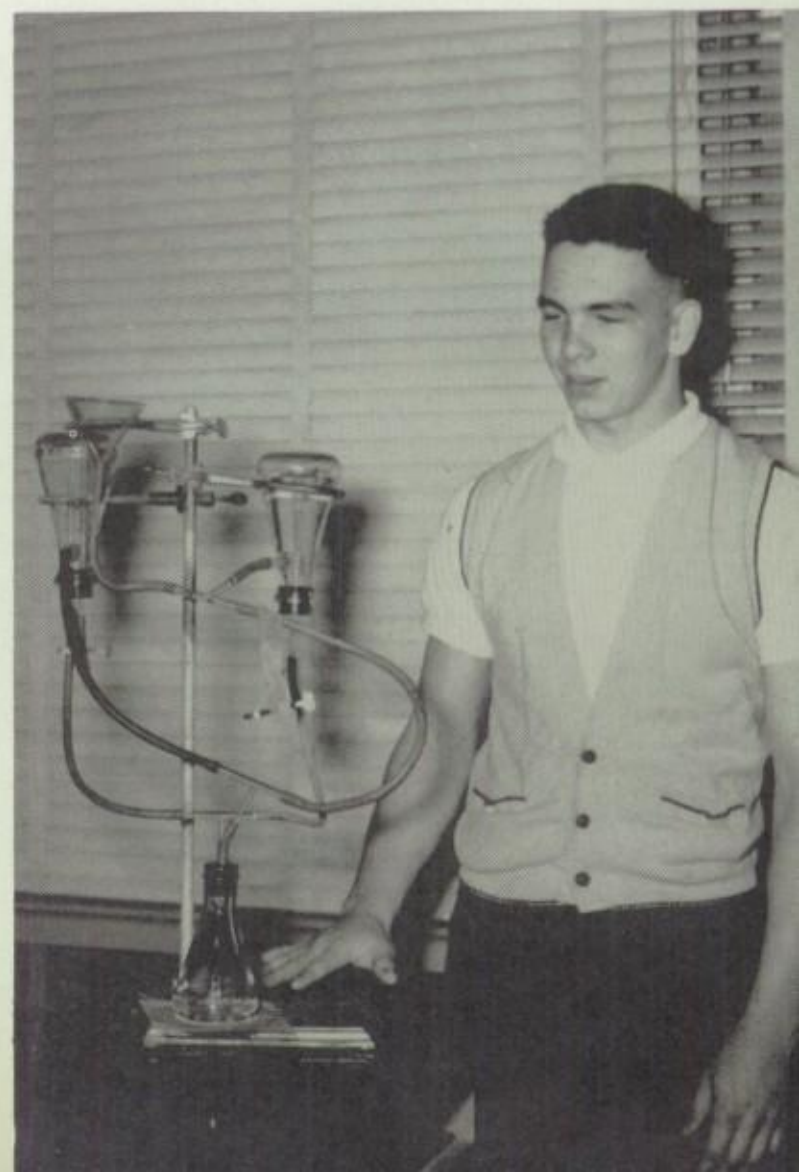

Mrs. Sadie Farrar was really pleased with her group when their project, "Sound," won a blue ribbon. Showing it off are Randy Gillum, Robert McMurrian, Lynn Baughman, Hermoine Stewart, and Jan Black.

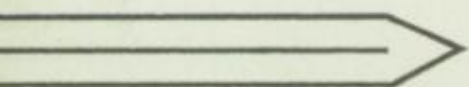

"Jet Propulsion," a project entered by Hoppy Hallman, also received a blue ribbon. The rocket powered by rocket fuel climbed up a spiral wire.

Sports Honors

All-State players Peggy Wade, Eula Nyegaard, and Sandra Allen are presented certificates by Mr. Clinton while Coach Albritton looks on.

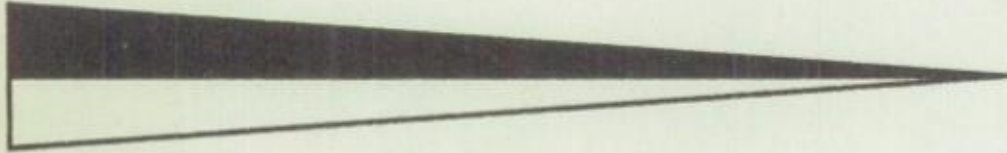

Senior cheerleaders Bettye White, Mary Jo Haddox, and Peggy Wade were presented football jackets in honor of their loyalty to FHS in promoting school spirit.

Showing off the trophy received for winning district championship for the sixth year are, kneeling, L. Pickel, B. Nolan, S. Eiland, K. Laster, B. White, L. Tugwell, P. White, C. Hudson, A. Harrell. Standing, Coach Albritton, D. Morris, G. Chapman, B. Haye, S. Allen, P. Wade, E. Nyegaard.

4-H Banquet

A patriotic theme was carried out at the 1959 4-H Club banquet. The gala decorated speakers' table was the center of interest.

Mr. W. A. Downs, guest speaker, gives a very interesting speech on loyalty, which was very informative.

Some of the entertainment was provided by a tap number featuring Lynn Baughman and Patsy Kennedy, who are a popular duet when it comes to fine showmanship.

Activities

Mr. Bruce Flint was presented with a travel alarm clock when he left his parish 4-H Club work to become program supervisor for the district.

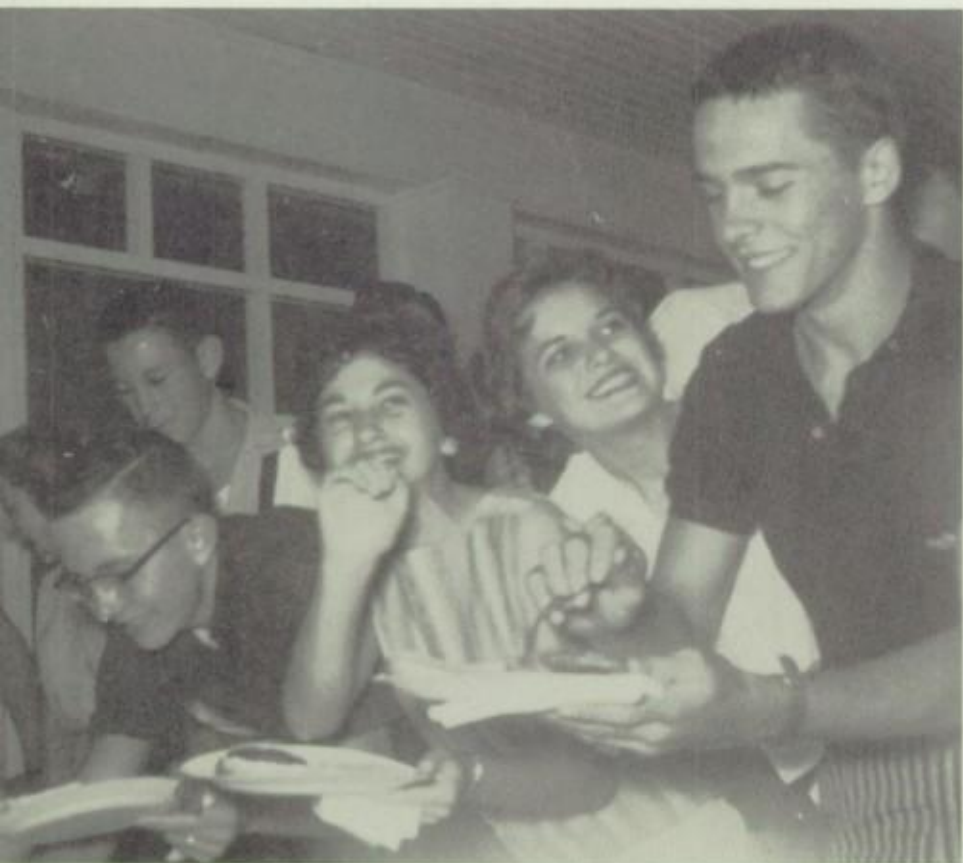

'59 Yearbook

FHS students excitedly look at their new yearbooks. The Golden Anniversary edition proved to be one of the best ever published by FHS.

The junior party held at the home of Buddy Andrews provided all who attended with a rollicking good time. Here everyone closes in on the food!

One of the games played by the group was full of surprises, as is shown by James Taylor's imitation of Elvis. Who would have ever thought he had it in him?

Junior Party

Bi-District Play-Off

Peggy Wade (55) gets off a scoring shot in the bi-district playoffs with Winnsboro. Bonnie Haye (back to camera) gets ready to close in for the rebound just in case. This group of girls went far in the state competition, but they lost out to Oak Grove in the semi-finals.

Sharron Eldred, Mildred Neal, Pat Ann Robison, and Carol Joyce Waller rehearse the straw hat and cane dance which proved to be a smash hit at the minstrel.

Master of Ceremonies Joe Dexter Albritton was in charge of the program which carried out the theme "With a Song In My Heart" very successfully.

Minstrel Jr.-Sr. Banquet

"With a Song In My Heart" was a very successful theme for the 1959 Junior-Senior Banquet. Everyone in attendance enjoyed the program and, of course, the food.

1959 Senior Play

"Everything Happens to Us"

CAST:

John Ross - - - - -	Bob Dumas
Kitty Ross - - - - -	Pat Harvey
Rhett Ross - - - - -	Donny Gates
Ronald Ross - - - - -	Mickey Strother
Jay Ross - - - - -	Raynel West
Gloria Thatcher - - - - -	Diane Green
Martha Fay - - - - -	Phoebe Allen
Charley Duncan - - - - -	John Yelton
Ike Hicks - - - - -	Mikey Rabun
Josephine Cartwright -	Carolyn Gaddis
Iva Surret - - - - -	Patty McDougale
Ester Todd - - - - -	Jo Mary Tettleton

Before the play began, the entire cast was presented to the audience by Bob Dumas, the senior class president.

Leadership Conference

Leadership Conference was attended by seven of the junior class students. Those who went to visit the L. S. U. campus during June were, kneeling: Rodney Harper, Joe Dexter Albritton, and Harry Farrar. Standing: Carolyn Glass, Carol Joyce Waller, Jean Lamprich, and Christene Holloway. They attended classes in yearbook and newspaper while there.

Pelican State

Attending Pelican State this past summer at Baton Rouge were James Taylor, Gayle Pinckard, and Paul Palmer. Basis for selection was character, courage, honesty, leadership, scholastic ability, and cooperativeness.

The PLOW subscription sales contest was won by Gayle Pinckard who sold 49 subscriptions and received five dollars as first place prize. Runners-up were Carolyn Farley, third place with 44, and Brenda Anderson, second place with 47. Second place prize was three dollars and third place two dollars.

Contest Winners

Winning first place in the magazine sales was Steve Terral, right. Second place went to Meggie Baughman. Both of these received many prizes from the company for their good work.

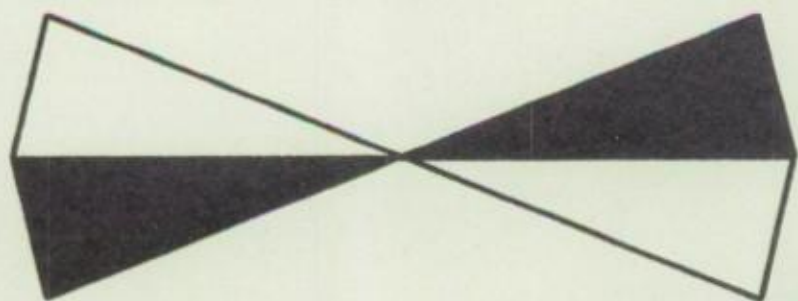

Pep Rally

An outdoor pep rally was given for the Farmers as they boarded a chartered bus to go to Coushatta. The entire school turned out to send them off with rousing cheers in hopes of victory.

Half-Time Performances

The band and pep squad worked every Thursday afternoon to be able to perform their best on the gridiron the following night. They are to be commended for such fine work all through the season.

The final performance after week-long toil is one of perfection. Here the majorettes get it off to a gala start with a spectacular and unusual flag-twirl.

Pep Rally

The FHS cheerleaders show the spirit of all the students at the pep rally preceding the last game of the season with Winnfield while the band plays "Saints."

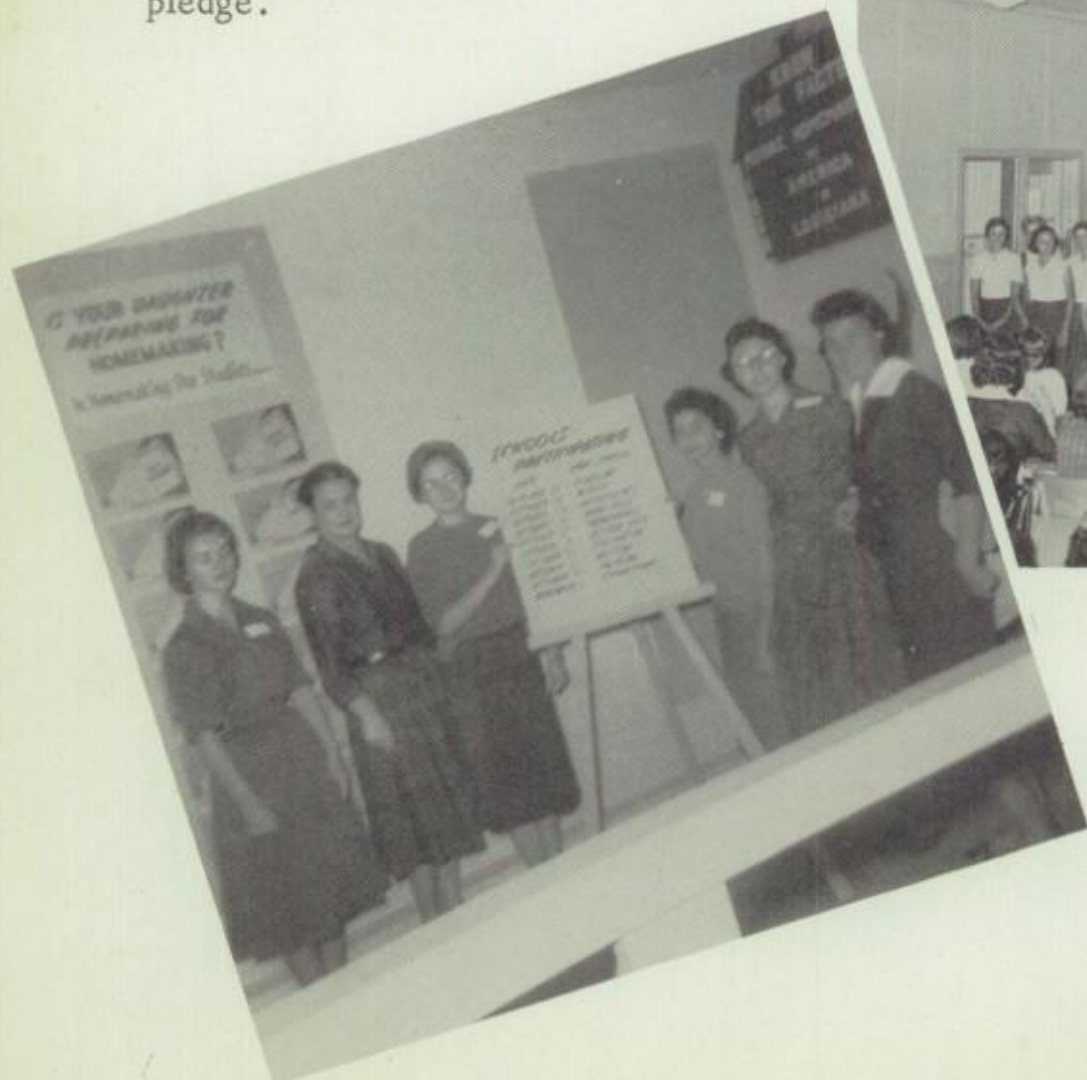

Presiding over the initiation ceremonies are FHA officers Winona Gates, song leader; Darline Phillips, reporter; Judy Greer, treasurer; Carolyn Glass, vice-president; Christene Holloway, president; Betty Craighead, secretary; Alva Ann Dumas, parliamentarian; Jean Lamprich, historian.

A competitive show of talent was presented to the initiates. Carol Joyce Waller, doing a comedy twirl and imitations of twirlers from other states, won first place. Second place went to Winona Gates, who played a piano solo, and third place was won by Joy Van Adkins and Gayle Thurston, who presented enjoyable pantomimes. They are, left to right: W. Gates, C. Waller, J. Adkins, and G. Thurston.

FHA Initiation

The proud new members of FHA stand and are congratulated as they take their pledge.

Mrs. Stewart and a group of FHA girls are shown here as they point out a chart giving the names of schools who participated in the FHA booth at the State Fair. The schools presented exhibits and demonstrations pertaining to homemaking education. They are Judy Greer, Mrs. Stewart, Judy Adams, Christene Holloway, Linda Black, and Judy Wisinger.

All the teachers of Union Parish attended a banquet given for them this year by Farmer-ville High School. This is an annual affair, and is sponsored by a different school each year.

This group of girls served the teachers and seemed to have a grand time doing so. They are (l to r) Brenda Anderson, Judy Greer, Imogene Compton, Christene Holloway, Jean Lamprich, Carolyn Glass, Linda Black, and Gay Mitchell.

UPTA Banquet

Mr. J. B. Robertson, Assistant Superintendent of Elementary and Secondary Education, was the principal speaker at the banquet. His speech concerned teacher welfare laws.

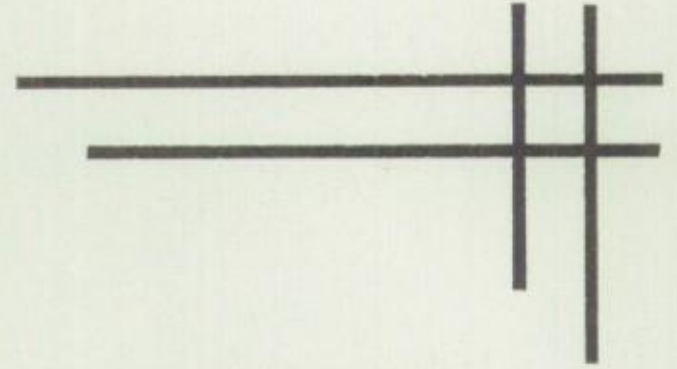

Mr. Varna Davis, president of UPTA, presided over a business meeting following the banquet.

Bonfire

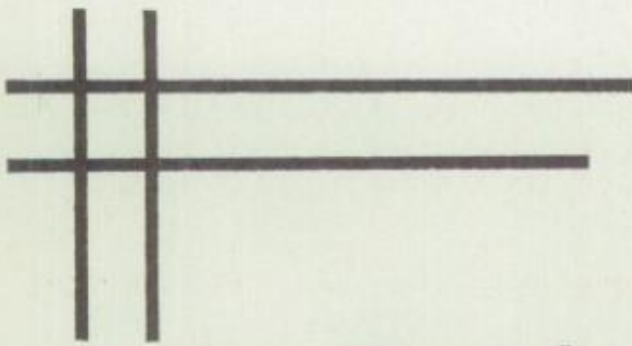

A burst of flames came to rest atop the brilliant face of Miss Flame, Carol Joyce Waller. Joe Dexter Albritton, co-captain of the football team, crowned her. A shining spark shed its light from atop the head of Miss Spark, Christene Holloway. Harry Farrar, co-captain, crowned her.

The bonfire sparked the spirit of every fan of the Farmerville Farmers. Majorettes Mildred Neal, Sharron Eldred, and Pat Robison presented a dance routine while Miss Flame and Miss Spark looked on.

The cheerleaders broke in football season with a rollicking yell. Everyone seemed to enjoy the festivities immensely, and each person went home with hopes of a victorious season.

Union Parish Fair — '59

At the Union Parish Fair, held October 21-24, every school in the parish was invited to enter an exhibit. The theme of this one was the Golden Anniversary of Farmerville High School. This booth received eighty-five points, which was the highest number of points received by any school. The theme was of interest to everyone.

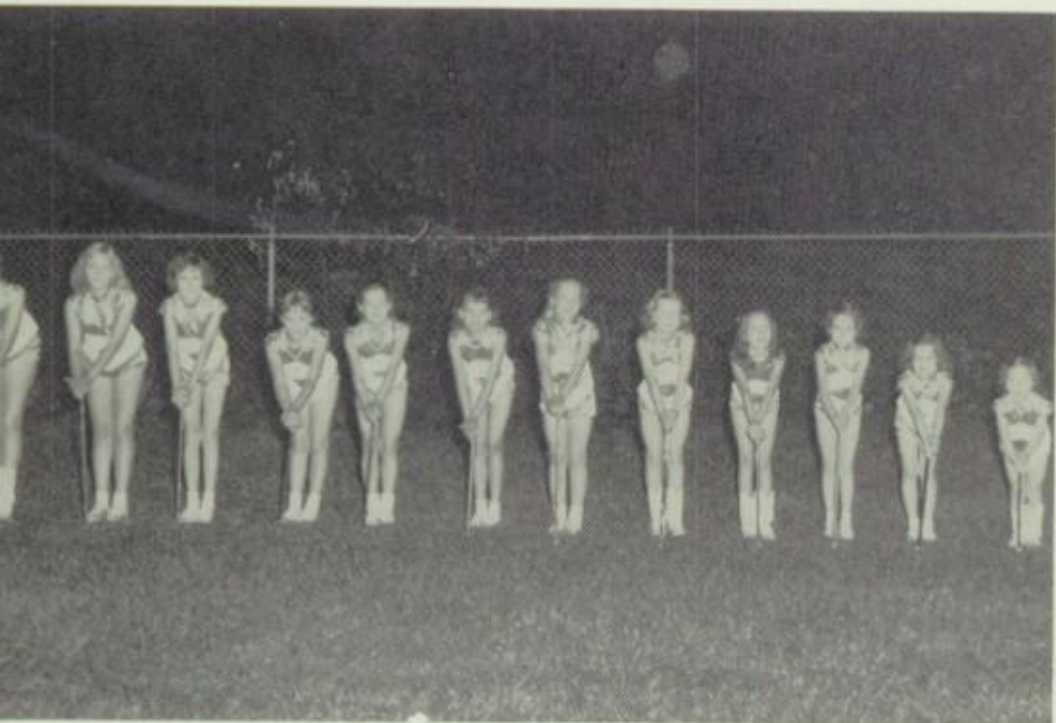

Homecoming Attractions

The royal Homecoming court poses before the parade. Reigning as queen is Christene Holloway, center; her subjects are Carol Ann Thomas, Kay Allen, Sharon Odom, and Jean Lamprich.

Mr. Clinton crowns Queen Christene at a special assembly. The originally-planned crowning ceremonies were cancelled due to inclement weather.*

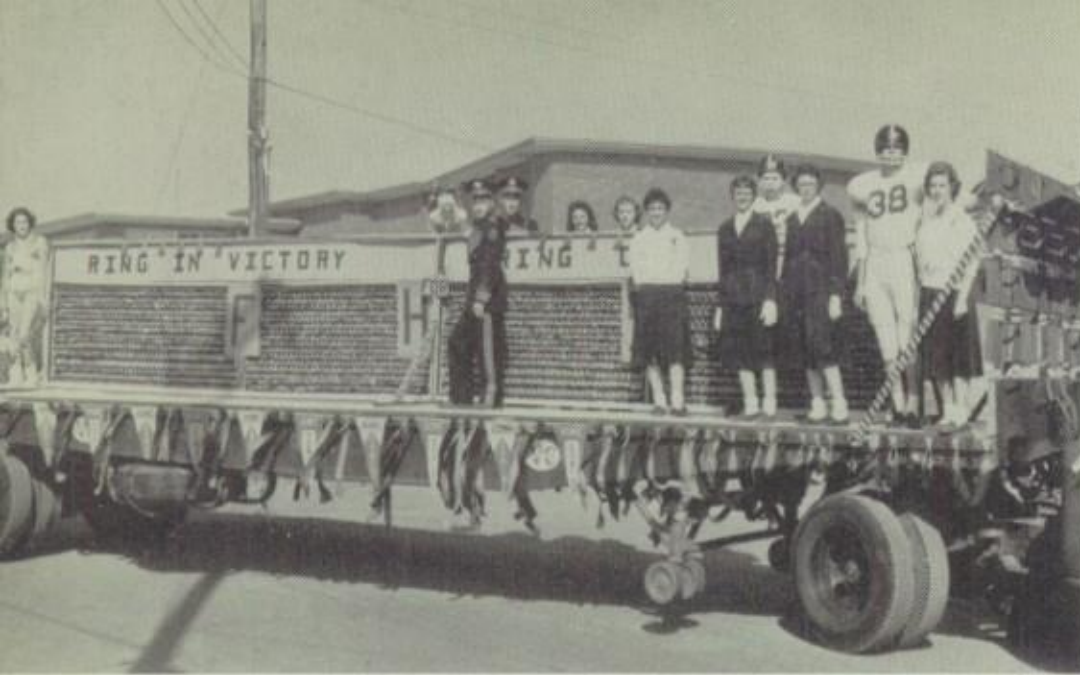

The Carolettes, baton students of Carol Joyce Waller, performed in the afternoon parade and during the half-time activities on the gridiron that night. Left to right they are: Elizabeth Phillips, Mary John Hallman, La Faye Clement, Beth Upshaw, Jane Downs, Jean Washam, Colleen Carpenter, Amy Strother, Kay Galloway, Patti Hartman, Virginia Kay Albritton, and Vickie Kennedy.

Brenda Anderson depicts the hope of the entire student body as she "tames a tiger." This entry, submitted by the FHA, won first place in its division.

The trade school entry is shown here as the chained tigers look upon their superiors. The rival team should know better than to even try to beat the Farmers from now on! This was the first-place winner in the car division.

This beautiful float, entered by the kindergarten, won first place in its division, also. A very colorful theme, "Round Up Time," was carried out.

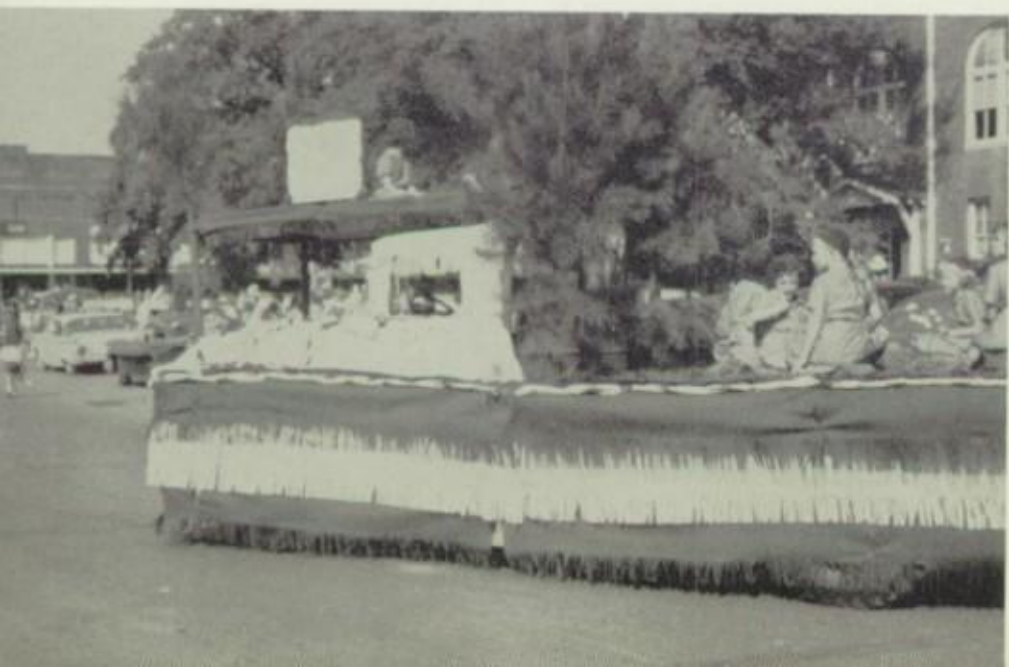

Homecoming Specialties

The Homecoming parade is off to a good start with the smart FHS band and majorettes in the lead.

The intermediate band, already a part of FHS spirit, is shown as it marched in the parade. This group was under the leadership of Linda Clement during the parade.

The alumni of the Class of 1939 enjoyed the supper given by the FHS band on this, their homecoming. The women, left to right, are: Ocile Yevick, Evelyn Washam, Eloise Beckham, Christine Phillips, Janet Davidson, Patty Guier, Marjorie Wade, Marilyn Ludwig, Mattie Lee Armstrong, and Lois Anderson. The men are G. L. Phelps, Bryson Albritton, J. C. Williams, Sidney Reech, Jr., Carnal Kelley, Burvil Taylor, Theron McVicker, Don Kennedy, Robert L. Howard, and Charles Lee Barr.

Shown here is the Brownie float which was decorated in the organization's colors of brown and gold. This beautiful float won first place in its division.

Halloween Parade

An excited host of Halloween creatures parade their weird costumes.

A group of students and teachers await the beginning of the parade.

John Morris goes into concentrated action at the dart board, manned by Joe Dexter and E. J. Albritton.

Johnny Long takes his turn to try to miss his thumb and hit the nail at this carnival attraction.

Rodney Harper looks at the corpse, alias Stanley Read, in the "Land of Horror."

R. McMurrian, D. Hall, R. Gillum, and F. Stewart form a barber shop quartet that proved to be a big hit with everyone.

Halloween Night

The fifth grade provided entertainment with an old-fashioned square dance.

A precision drill was the choice of performance given by the ninth grade.

Mr. Kurvis M. Burns visited the campus several times this year to take pictures of the individual students and of school activities. He should be commended for his fine work.

Linda Black receives her class ring from Mr. Ingram Ballard. This is an event the seniors look forward to each year.

FHS at

This attractive float received a great deal of work and consideration from the 4-H members. Riding the float are Mary Roberts, Mac Washam, Carolyn Glass, and Flo Smith (sitting); and Ronnie Nolan and Robbie James (standing).

Many students visit the library each day to take advantage of the references and other material found there. This is also a very popular place for study.

The bookmobile visits our campus every two weeks to supplement the school library. This gives the students a wider variety of books from which to choose.

a Glance

Presenting: Macbeth, Southern Style! Joe Dexter Albritton, as Macbeth, the southern gentleman, seems quite worried over the gypsies' prophecy. Decked out for the occasion are Carol Joyce Waller, Gayle Pinckard, and Becky Scott.

Engaged in the last of Macbeth's battles are Billy Rex Green (MacDuff) and Paul Palmer (Macbeth). This scene was depicted in the Cuban rebellion and Castro style.

English

Jeanette Long, along with Katie Ann Laster, shows off her English project on fingerprinting. This included charts on deciphering prints and pictures of actual prints made.

Activities

Now it's beatnik style that the cast attempts to depict. Harry Farrar, Kirby Morris, and Jean Lamprich share this scene in Birnum Wood from Shakespeare's great play that is annually studied by the twelfth grade.

Bruce Odom (Doctor) and Johnny Norris (Seyton) warn Macbeth, alias Rodney Harper, of the oncoming armies ready to attack him. This group performed another beatnik dramatization.

Gridiron Activities

The senior members of the pep squad and band were honored during the last half-time activity on the gridiron as each one's name was called over the loud speaker and they proudly, but sadly, stepped forward.

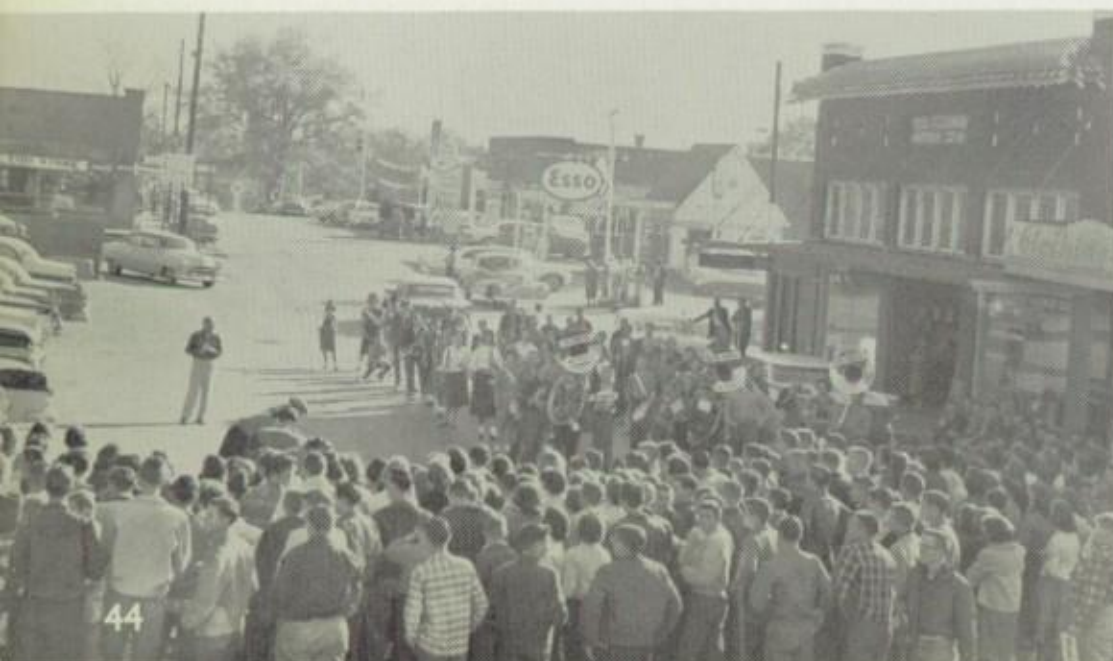

The football team, led by the cheerleaders dressed in their new sweaters, came bursting through a decorated football under the goal post before the last game with Winnfield. The band, majorettes, and pep squad were lined on each side and gave a rousing cheer as the team appeared.

FHS Spirit

After a very spirited pep rally held in the auditorium, the majorettes and band led a long line of students resembling a snake dance down main street. Even the football team and the coaches joined in!

At the end of the snake dance, in the center of the business district, the cheerleaders led the students and townspeople in yells for the team as they sat on the curb and watched. The band played "Saints," and the crowd was off again, this time back to the school.

Pep Rallies

Our coaches have turned into so-called cheerleaders for this pep rally. FHS is indebted to them for keeping up the spirit during football season. "Up in the air" are Albritton, Bankston, Carpenter, and Albritton.

The spirit of FHS students came to a huge climax at the last pep rally of the season. As shown by the picture, everyone was behind the Farmers in a big way for the conference clash with Winnfield.

Special Presentations

Henry Burk Malone presented shirts to the entire coaching staff from the team in appreciation of their time and energy during the football season. Coach Bankston is receiving his gift as Coach Albritton comes forward to get his.

Phyliss White is shown receiving one of the beautiful white sweaters presented to each of the cheerleaders by Mr. Clinton, initiating the first step toward re-outfitting the entire pep squad.

Faculty

Mr. Clinton proudly shows off his gift, a very pretty shirt, presented him by the high school faculty. Mr. Wilson was in charge of the presentation.

Mr. E. J. Albritton plays Santa Claus to the teachers as they exchange gifts among themselves. Mr. Nolan and Coach Carpenter are about to receive their gaily wrapped packages.

Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Kemp really got quite a laugh out of this game. Mrs. Kemp, our math teacher, guessed closest to the number of pieces of candy in the jar and received them as the reward.

Mrs. Wiley is in the process of "taking" Mrs. Miller's gift as Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Eldred look around for one they would like to "take." The snack trays Mrs. Miller chose seemed to be quite popular, since they passed through the hands of every one of the teachers!

Concentration must be hard, but it can be fun, this picture seems to say of Mrs. Andrews and Mrs. Rabun, as they try to spell words from a handful of "Alpha-bits" letters.

Mr. E. J. Albritton entered his guess even though he didn't win. Looking on are Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. Tanner, Mrs. Harston, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Harper, and Mrs. Barron.

Christmas Party

Mr. Nolan was quite jovial as he received his shirt from the elementary teaching staff.

Sh-h-h-h-h-h! Geniuses are at work as the male teachers concentrate on Bingo! At work, as well as at play, are Coach Carpenter, Mr. Nolan, Mr. Blake Albritton, Mr. Clinton, Mr. Wilson, and Mr. E. J. Albritton.

Mrs. Andrews seems to be trying to dodge the "thing" that flew out of a peanut can just as she opened it. Later it was discovered that it was only a play snake.

Mrs. Kemp served as hostess at the tea table which was decorated to carry out the holiday theme. Mrs. Harston and Mrs. Miller seem to enjoy the delicious cookies, candy, and sandwiches which were also very prettily decorated.

Mr. Clinton is caught in the act of gazing at his chattering false teeth! Also getting a big kick out of things are Coach Carpenter, Mr. Albritton, Mrs. Rabun, and Mrs. Wade.

Mrs. Pace, Mrs. Antley, and Mrs. Reid are certainly getting a chuckle from Mrs. Kemp as she plays with her baby rattle.

Wilda Odom seems shocked that she was caught in the act of eating. We wonder if she enjoyed her snack. Jerry Tettleton and Dean Adkins seem to have no complaints, however.

Pep Squad Party

Rudolph Thomas, Gerald Caskey, Mrs. M. L. Rabun, and Kirby Morris seem to be getting a big kick out of this musical game which was played to "I've Been Working on the Railroad."

Mr. Wilson, Coach and Mrs. Carpenter, and Coach Bankston seem to have different opinions of the food. Their expressions lead us to think so, anyway.

PTA

"Good Citizens Make Good Government," January PTA theme, featured a panel consisting of Jurd Stewart, lawman; Royce Bird, businessman; Mrs. Stein Baughman, chairman; Frances Read, student; and Reverend Cole, clergyman.

Mrs. Barron, Mrs. Antley, Mr. Wilson, Mrs. M. L. Rabun, and Mrs. Reid are presented gifts by drillmaster Christene Holloway. The pep squad acknowledge these teachers for their undying efforts to help the Farmerettes.

Noel Daniels, Johnny Norris, Roye Ludwig, Henry Malone, Joe Albritton, Harry Farrar, and Kirby Morris are shown proudly displaying the trophies they won. Similar trophies are presented to the outstanding players each year.

The football used in Homecoming tilt, which was signed by team members and coaches, is shown off by captains, Joe Albritton and Harry Farrar, and coaches, Bankston, Albritton, and Carpenter.

Head football coach of Northeast State College in Monroe, Jack Rowan, gave an informative talk concerning what college expects of the student, especially athletes.

Football Banquet

Ronald DeLaney, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, was asked to be the guest speaker at the January FHA meeting. He accepted and gave a very inspiring speech on the theme "Family Unity."

FHA

"I Speak for Democracy"

Frances Read was the winner of the essay contest entitled "I Speak for Democracy." The contest was open to any student in the eleventh and twelfth grades.

The PTA potluck supper featured a discussion on "What I Expect Out of High School" by Harry Farrar and Christene Holloway. These were chosen from the entries of the twelfth grade English classes and were sponsored by Ingram Bullard. A check for five dollars was awarded to both of these students.

The senior play, "Quit Your Kidding," will be put on this year by the following: Mrs. Kemp (director); seated, Brenda Anderson, Linda Black, Bonnie Nolan, Carolyn Farley, and Carol Joyce Waller. Standing, Sue Odom, Harry Farrar, Ruby Farrar, Paul Palmer, Rodney Harper, Gary Cobb, and Joe Dexter Albritton.

Senior Play

Others assisting in the presentation of the play are, seated, Jean Lamprich, Sonny Auger, Brenda Tucker, Johnny Norris, and Mary Pace. Standing, Gayle Pinckard, Mickey Cole, Christene Holloway, Donald Acree, Buster Nolan, Nancy Connally, Robert Reagan, Winona Gates, and Curtis Nyegaard.

Talent Show

The pep squad talent show was enlivened by this group of girls who imitated each of the first string basketball boys and the coach. Posing as they said cute little rhymes about each one are Katie Ann Laster, Jerry Tettleton; Patricia Robison, Emmett Silmon; Lita Tugwell, Joe Dexter Albritton; Jeanette Long, Curtis Allen; Phyliss White, Kirby Morris; and Mitzi Baughman, Coach Bankston.

4-H Banquet — 1960

The Farmerville 4-H Club held its annual banquet February 10 in the high school cafeteria. The theme carried out through beautiful decorations was "Keys of Love," since it was so close to St. Valentine's Day. Mr. C. R. Kates, representative from the United Gas Company, presented the club $30 and a framed certificate for winning second place in the district for Best Community Award. President Henry Malone received it.

Mrs. Sadie Farrar, absent from the banquet because of illness, was honored with a beautiful plaque awarded her for outstanding work in the 4-H Club. She was first place winner in the State Alumni Recognition contest. Shown at the speaker's table is Mr. Peter T. Lannan, local representative for Olin Matherson Chemical Corporation.

The senior club presented the junior and senior local leaders with lovely gifts in appreciation of their untiring efforts during the year. Proudly showing these off are Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. Dillard, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Rabun, Mr. Nolan, and Mrs. Meeks, who received Mrs. Farrar's gift in her absence. Henry Burk Malone presented the gifts on behalf of the club.

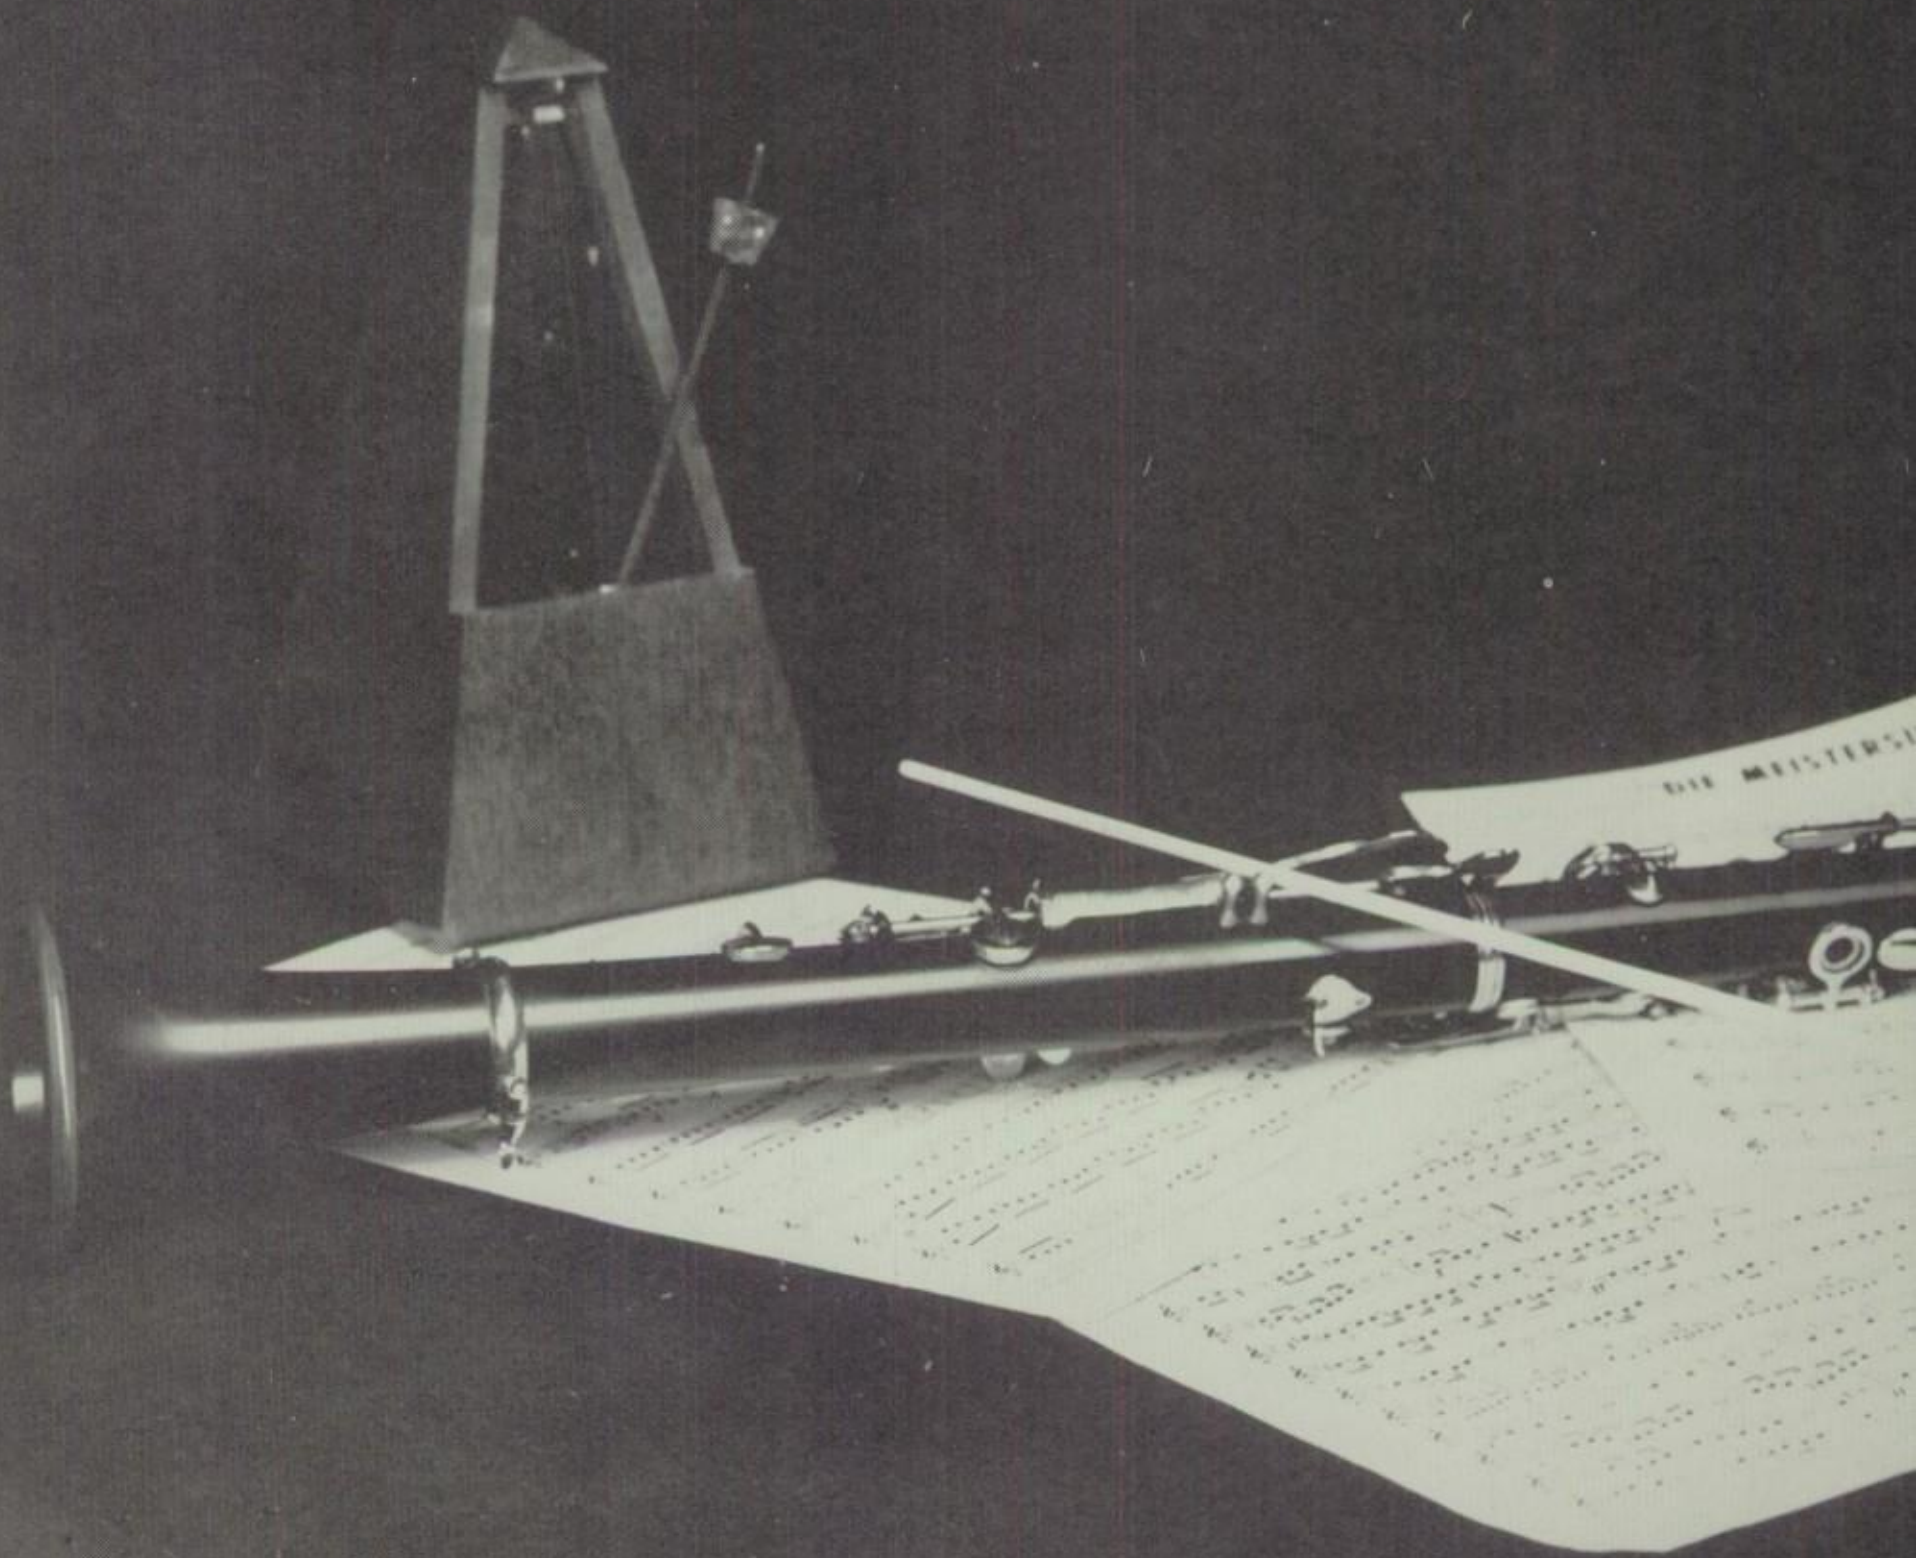

Mother-Daughter Tea

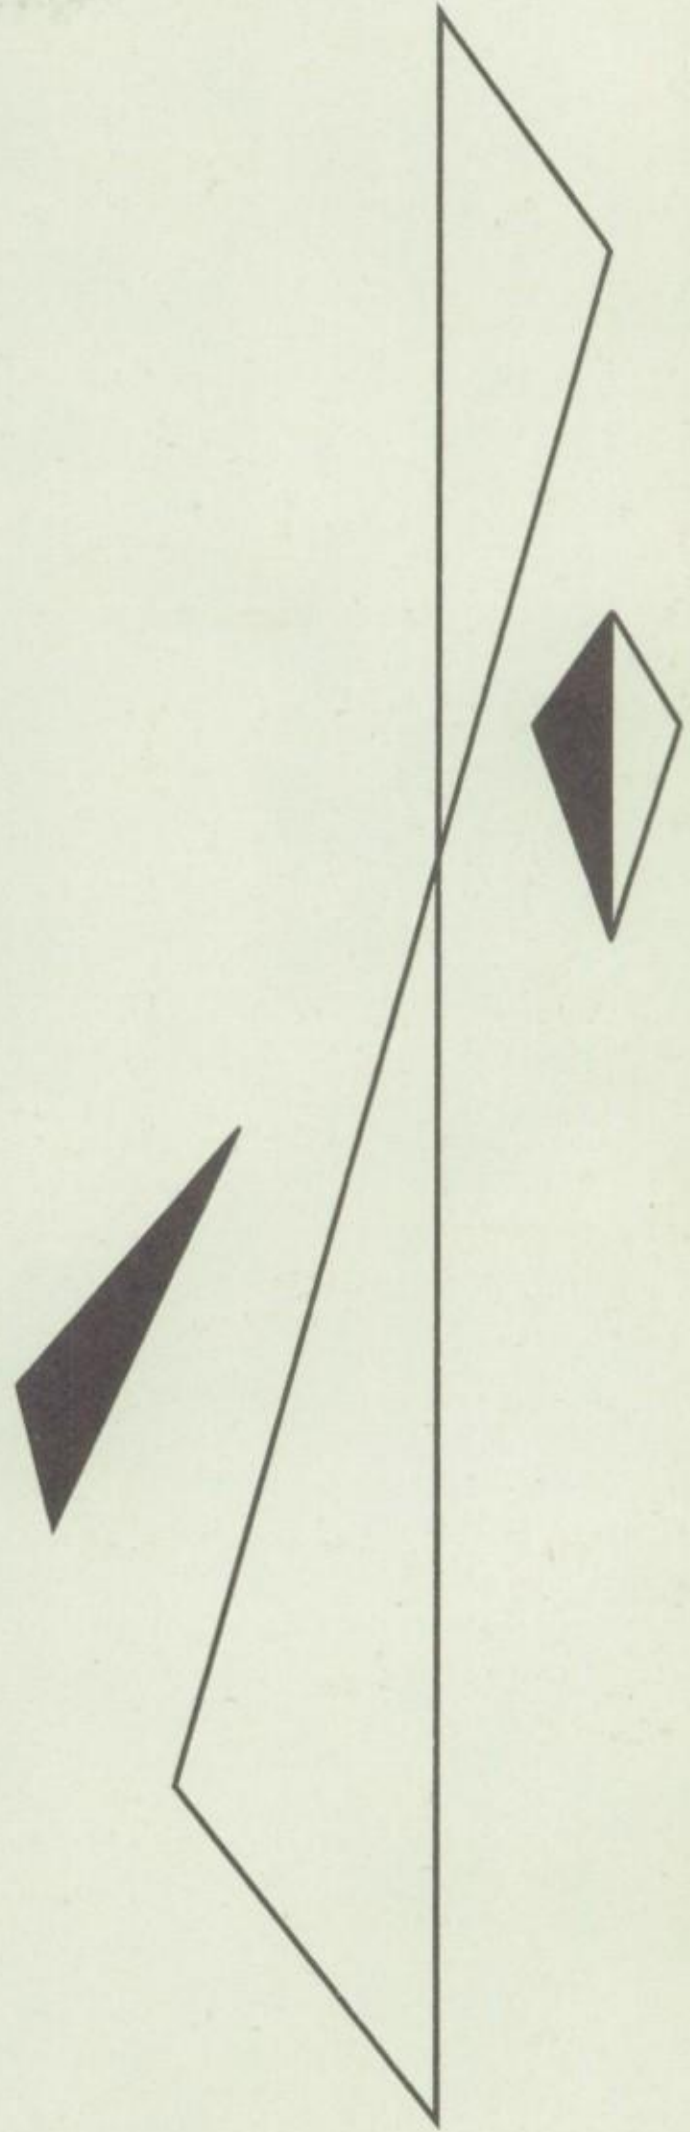

A large group of mothers and daughters attended the lovely Mother-Daughter Tea, given by the home economics students. Here they are shown as they chat with each other while enjoying the delicious refreshments which were prepared by the girls.

Trying to choose from the attractive variety of sandwiches and cookies displayed on the beautifully decorated tea table are Lynn Baughman, Linda Upshaw, Mrs. R. H. Upshaw, Mrs. Sam Hartman, Jr., Gay Mitchell, Mrs. Gertie Mae Mitchell, and Mrs. Ollie Nolan, Jr., Christene Holloway, FHA president, presided at the punch bowl.

In February the band sponsored the traditional band clinic in which students of Crowville, Rayville, West Monroe, Arcadia, Winnsboro, and Farmerville participated. This year we were fortunate in having as directors Mr. Tommy Tyra, band director at Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, and Mr. Wendall Evansin, director at Henderson State Teachers College, Arkadelphia, Arkansas.

This year the invitation to perform at halftime during a basketball game at Louisiana Tech was accepted and was considered by the students a high point of the season.

Spring finds the band busily preparing for the Solo and Ensemble Contest, Minstrel, Music Festival in Ruston, Spring Concert, and this year the eagerly anticipated biennial concert tour.

Dragons 14 - Farmers 6

The Farmers lost the season's opening football game by a tune of 14 to 6. Senior halfback Johnny Norris was hurt during this game, and the accident was felt by the Farmers throughout the season.

Seeing their first action for the Farmers were Billy Rich, Noel Daniels, Johnny Miller, and Johnny Edwards.

Mangham led Farmerville in first downs, 7 to 3.

SEPTEMBER 18

Choctaws 19 - Farmers 7

The Farmerville Farmers got within the five yard line five times only to be pushed back by penalties and fumbles, as they lost their first conference game to the Coughatta Choctaws.

A large crowd traveled to Coughatta only to see a game in which two touchdowns were called back for the Farmers.

Although the Farmers lost, they outgained Coughatta by over 100 yards.

Review

SEPTEMBER 25
Trojans 36 - Farmers 6

The Farmers lost their third outing to the Tallulah Trojans, the defending state champions in Class A. The Farmers put up a good first half stand but were completely outclassed in the second half.

Both teams had 11 first downs apiece while Tallulah rushed for 283 yards and Farmerville ground out 185 yards.

The Farmers spread out the Trojan defense as Johnny Miller (33) carries the ball. Other players, K. Morris (52), R. Ludwig (70), B. Green, R. Thomas (77), E. Silmon (80), and H. Farrar, are pictured in grueling action with Tallulah.

Tigers 40 - Farmers 13

The Farmerville Farmers surprised everyone by scoring 13 points upon the powerful Neville Tigers, AA State Champions.

Kirby Morris took a pass and turned it into the Farmers' first touchdown. Joe Albritton collected the second touchdown on a three yard plunge across the center of the line.

This game renewed an old rivalry that had been dead for several years.

OCTOBER 9
Tigers 0 - Farmers 0

The Farmers and the LaSalle Tigers battled to a scoreless tie in a defensive game, Farmer-ville's drive to the LaSalle two on the last play of the first half was the game's most nearly-productive threat.

OCTOBER 16
Tigers 20 - Farmers 6

The Farmers gave up a 6-0 half-time lead to lose out to the Oak Grove Tigers in a non-conference game.

A tense sideline shot shows the grim, determined expression of the coaches and team. The players who sat on the bench were an important part of the Farmers this season.

Tigers 0 - Farmers 14

The Farmerville Farmers tripped the Many Tigers 14-0 before a rain-soaked Homecoming crowd in a 1-A conference game. The Farmers were playing on a field of mud and slush, which seemed to dampen everything but the school spirit. Joe Albritton swept the ends twice for touchdowns, both being set by Many fumbles recovered by Henry Malone and Harry Farrar.

NOVEMBER 6
Bears 6 - Farmers 19

The big game of the year with four-year rival Bernice ended in a 19-6 victory for the Farmers. Playing in almost sub-zero temperature, the Farmers scored the first time they got their hands on the ball and were never threatened for the lead.

The line showed up good on both offense and defense. The cold kept both teams in the hole by causing repeated fumbles.

NOVEMBER 13

Hornets 28 - Farmers 19

The Farmers spotted the Rayville Hornets two first-quarter touchdowns but came back fighting and almost pulled it out of the fire. After playing last week's game in freezing temperature, the eighty degree temperature was tiring on both teams.

The climax of the game was an intercepted Horner pass which Kirby Morris turned into a 41 yard touchdown run.

Tigers 19 - Farmers 7

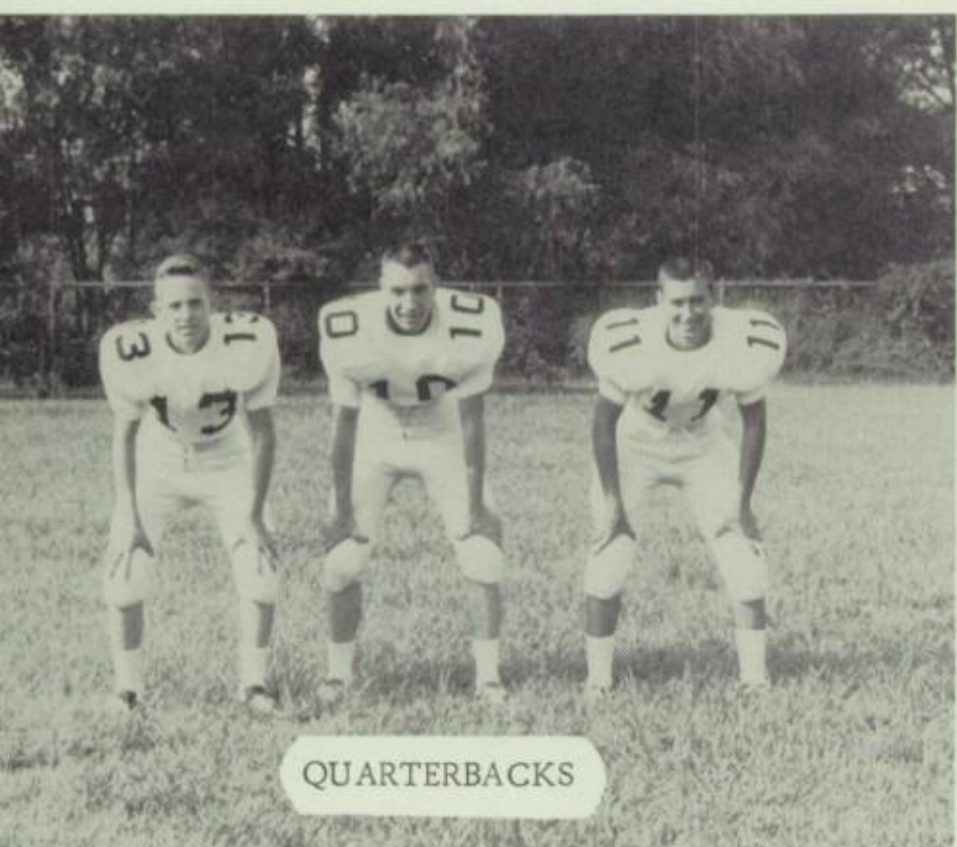

The Farmers held the Winnfield Tigers well but came out on the short end of a 19-7 score. Although a loss, this is a game which will long be remembered by the local fans. After going scoreless for almost four quarters and with less than 4 minutes left, the Farmers drove relentlessly through the middle of the Tiger defense for 75 yards and a touchdown! Jerry Tettleton picked up most of the yards, while Joe Albritton scored.

Emmett Silmon was named on the All-District football team and on the All-Tournament team at Winnfield. He is another track medal winner.

Honors

Jayme Spencer presented Roye Ludwig with a trophy recognizing him as Best Blocker. He has also been named on the All-District football team.

The Most Improved player of the year was Noel Daniels. This award was presented by former FHS athlete, Levy Redden.

Co-captain Joe Dexter Albritton presented Jimmy Tucker with a gift from the team for announcing the games this past season.

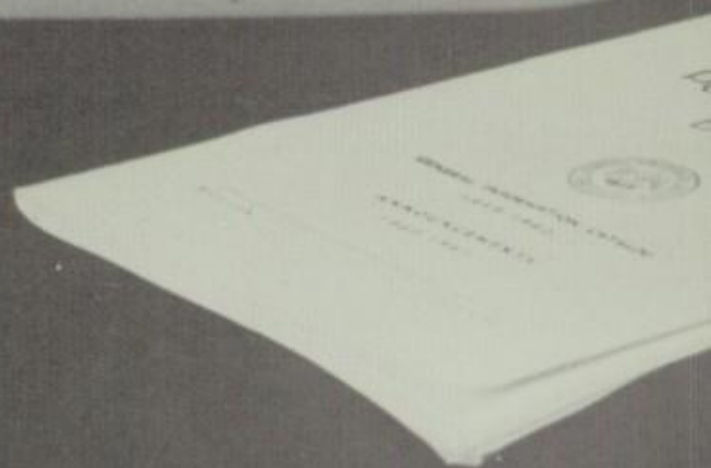

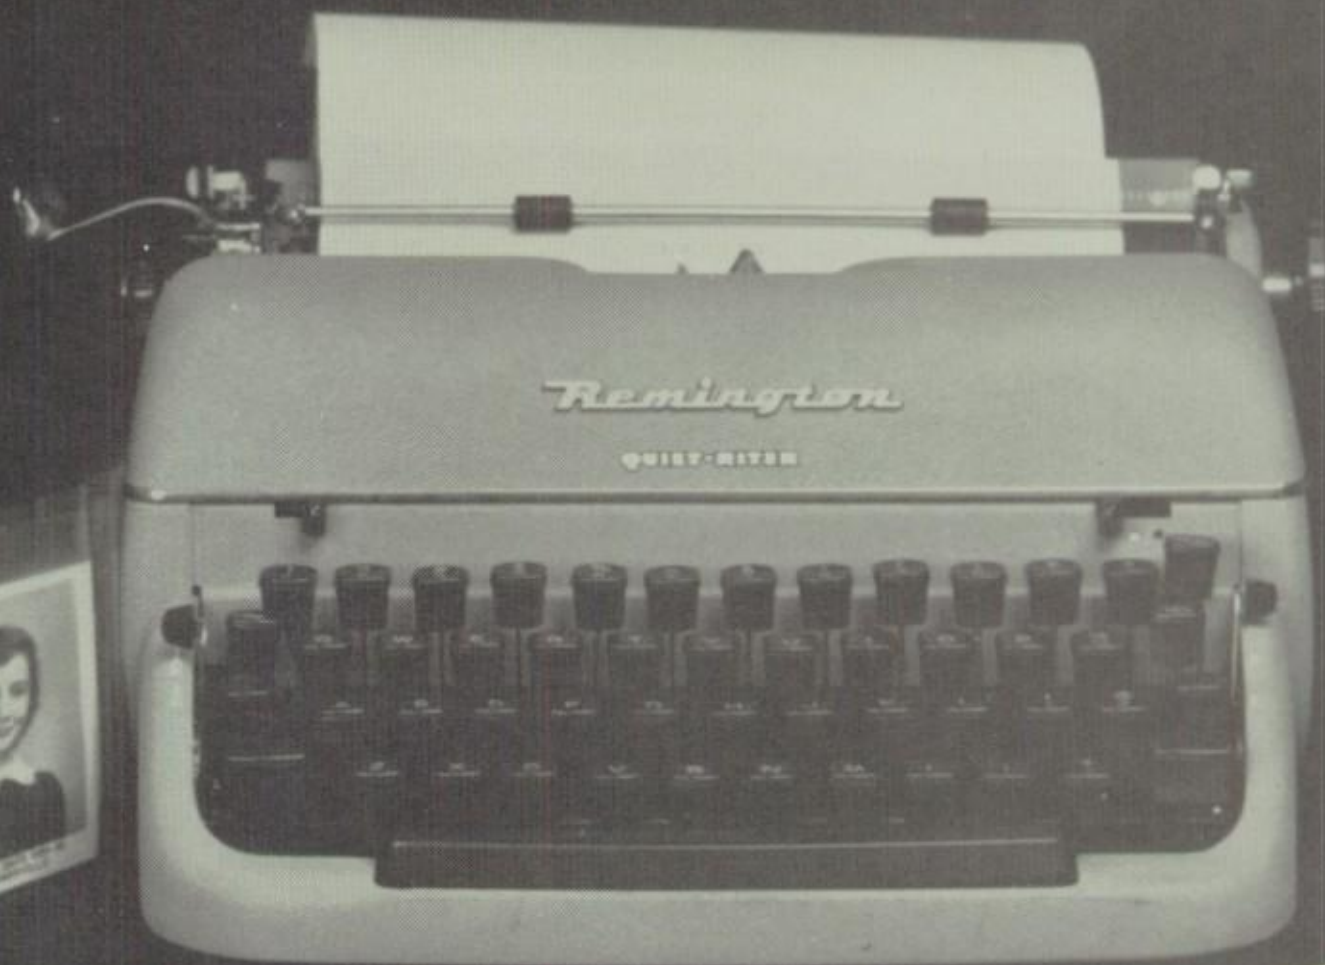

J. T. Spencer, who was in charge of keeping the scoreboard, was presented with a gift in appreciation of his efforts by Co-captain Harry Farrar.

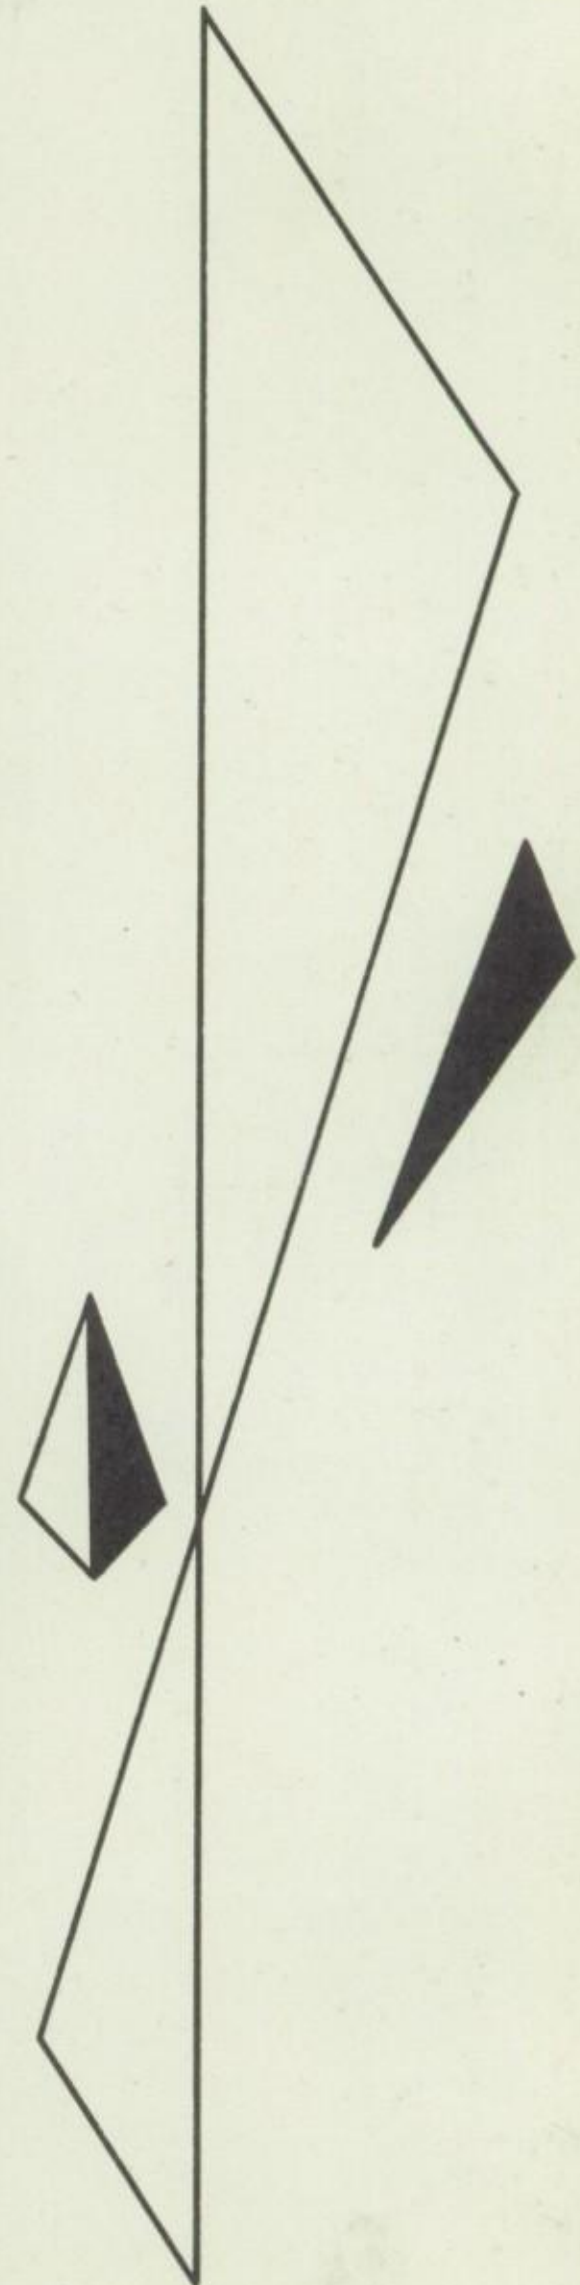

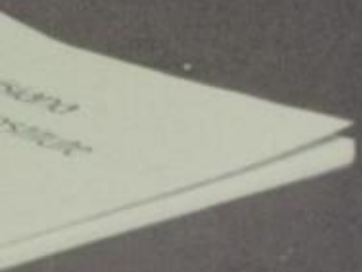

Rudolph Thomas was named on the All-District team this year, also.

On behalf of the band, Johnny Norris presented a gift to Raymond Masling for announcing the half-time performances at each of the games.

Classes

Senior Activities

September 9 was a big occasion for the seniors when they gathered in the auditorium to order their class rings. The faces of all 71 students were aglow, and they talked excitedly as they filled out the order blanks for their rings.

Mr. Bob Grant, the ring salesman, is giving Gayle Pinckard a perfect fit while Carolyn Farley, Mary Pace, Sue Aulds, and Becky Scott look on. Other students discuss colors of sets for their rings.

The senior class met in the auditorium on December 2 to choose their graduation invitations. Although all the students seemed to have their own ideas about how the invitations should look, they finally agreed on one after serious consideration.

The morning of December 18 was an exciting and memorable day for the '60 seniors. The long-awaited day when they would receive their class rings was here at last. Frances Johnson is shown receiving her ring before the student body assembly. Mr. Ingram Ballard, school board member from Ward 1, assisted by Christine Holloway, had the honor of presenting the class rings to the eager boys and girls.

In the Classroom with the Eighth Grade

Mrs. Howard demonstrates that heat causes metals to expand to her third period eighth grade science class.

Mrs. Rabun's eighth grade Home Ec girls entertain Mrs. Antley's eighth grade P.E. girls at a Christmas party in the Home Ec cottage.

The boys and girls in Mrs. Reid's math class are busy drawing circles and measuring degrees. This teaches them to use a compass and a protractor correctly.

Sixth Grade Activities

In Mrs. Futch's room music is receiving the children's attention. They find that singing is inspirational and enjoyable as well as educational. In fact they believe happy people are a singing people.

Mrs. Harper's children are busy sketching pictures as an outcome of a unit in geography on the Balkan countries. Much interest is being shown as a result of art being integrated with social studies.

The pupils in Mrs. Rogers' room have just received their prizes for selling magazines. The sixth grade pupils have made good salesmen. The prizes were very nice, and each child who sold a magazine received a pen. Each room and the office are to receive clocks for the walls as extra prizes for the high sales.

Fifth Grade Activities

The children of Mrs. Elliott's room are working in their language workbooks. They are finding that the books are a valuable aid in learning word usage, punctuation, and other skills.

The subject of much interest in the WEEKLY READER was "Operation Deep-Freeze." As these students in Mrs. Hammonds' room paused in their discussion for the location of Antarctica, this scene was taken.

These students in Mrs. Rabun's room are looking at the pictures they made by "pinch tearing" old newspapers. This kind of picture making was brought about by a discussion of Thanksgiving and of how frugal the early settlers were, making use of materials at hand and wasting nothing.

Upon finishing a unit on Switzerland, we find Mrs. Armstrong's class displaying and explaining pictures they drew on the subject.

Here we find Mrs. Greene's class enjoying their dart set. This is a favorite rainy day activity.

Mrs. Pace's class is happy to display the pictures they drew on the subject of the lands around the Mediterranean Sea.

Third Grade Activities

Mrs. Albritton's class finds time to pose in front of the very attractive bulletin board they fixed during National Book Week.

Third grade boys and girls in Mrs. Eldred's room enjoy time out with the rhythm band.

We find Mrs. Wiley's class reading their weekly paper. This keeps them informed of current world happenings.

Second Grade Activities

The children in Mrs. Greer's room are enjoying making funny people from potatoes and apples. This was an activity that came as a result from reading a story in the WEEKLY READER.

Mrs. Smith's class is enjoying the new library books during their free period.

Mrs. Wilson's group enjoys using the flannel board, sticks, the abacus and spools to make addition more meaningful.

Snapshots

Miss Flame, Carol Joyce Waller, is crowned by Joe Dexter Albritton, while Harry Farrar prepares to crown Christine Holloway, Miss Spark. This bonfire, the first in two years, was the kick-off of the 1959 football season.

Our Homecoming Court is presented at the pep rally by the cheerleaders. Behind them stands the Farmer, the symbol of our football team.

These are our majorettes preparing to start the Halloween parade. Behind their masks, left to right, are Mildred Neal, Carol Joyce Waller, Sharron Eldred, and Patricia Robison.

Coach E. J. Albritton shows his team spirit by helping Frances Read lead the cheers at a pep rally.

Near Nell -
 It has really been a pleasure going to F. H. S. with you this year & I am truly looking forward to next year. We have seen both good & bad times up here. We have had lots of fun this past year in Pep Squad
 but we will really have fun next year. Always remember me as one of your best friends for that is how I will remember you.
Autographs a friend always
